WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

"Loved the conference. I seem to need this boost each year. I come home with a renewed commitment to be an enthusiastic librarian."

"Had a great time and am leaving feeling encouraged and eager to implement the things I've learned."

"Authors were tremendous. Enjoyed their presentations immensely."

"You don't have to be a church librarian to enjoy the ECLA conference. If you love reading, you'll love the workshops, book giveaways, and book swap!"

ABOUT ECLA

The Evangelical Church Library Association (ECLA), founded in 1970, is a fellowship of individuals, churches, publishers, and library suppliers for the purpose of enriching lives through the ministry of well-organized church and school libraries and media centers.

Membership benefits include a subscription to our online Church Libraries journal, discount on the annual fall conference, and help with your library.

For more information about ECLA, go to www.ECLALibraries.org.

FRIDAY DINNER

Friday evening, a dozen Christian book writers will join us for dinner., talk about their writing, and sell their books. This is a great opportunity to get acquainted with writers and buy autographed books.

A list of confirmed authors will be posted on our website. Note: Most writers do not take credit cards for sales.

SATURDAY SPEAKERS

Stan Guthrie, Writer and Editor

Stan is a Christianity Today editor at large; host of the Books & Culture podcasts; author of A Concise Guide to Bible Prophecy: 60 Predictions Everyone Should Know, All That Jesus Asks: How His Questions Can Teach and Transform Us, and Missions in the Third Millennium; and coauthor (with Jerry Root) of The Sacrament of Evangelism.

Visit his website at www.stanguthrie.com.

Chris Jager, Fiction Buyer

Chris has been a reader for as long as she can remember. She has worked for Baker Book House, the bookstore arm of Baker Publishing Group, for more than 16 years where she does a job that is a perfect fit for her: fiction buyer. She blogs about fiction for the store at www.bbhfiction.blogspot.com.

Some of her favorite people on the planet are librarians as they have always helped her find the perfect book to read.
